- 1. The purchase of an inkjet print or digital image does not in itself carry with it the right to make a reproduction in any form. Copyright in all images remains the property of the Ashmolean. Images of works by living artists or those who died less than 70 years ago can only be supplied, other than for research or private study, if the applicant has obtained prior written consent from the copyright holder. The Ashmolean cannot undertake to give advice or information in regard to ownership of copyright in these cases.
- 2. If an image is required for publication (in any format), an application must be made for reproduction rights. If applicable, a charge for the appropriate reproduction fee will be issued along with the image fee (where relevant). Permission to reproduce is dependant on full acceptance of the following conditions and is automatically abrogated if any part is infringed.
 - i. The acknowledgement '© Ashmolean Museum, University of Oxford' will appear in the caption/credit line for each reproduction.
 - ii. No reproduction will be used for commercial advertising without specific permission and each will appear without overprinting or any other impairment of its integrity as a work of art. Where only a part of a work is reproduced with specific permission from the Picture Library, the word 'detail' will be included in the caption.
 - iii. No work of art will be reproduced larger than life-size without specific permission from the Picture Library.
 - iv. Images reproduced online should be produced at 72dpi (1,000px longest side maximum).
 - v. Images which have not been supplied by the Ashmolean should be sent to the Picture Library for quality checking before authorisation to reproduce is granted. Please send the full size image(s) to be assessed.
 - vi. All rights granted are non-exclusive and a new application must be made for any new editions, reprints or further use of photographic material, unless rights in perpetuity have been granted.
 - vii. No other person or organisation will be permitted to use the material supplied by the Ashmolean other than for the purpose stated on the original reproduction rights application.
- 3. Digital media and advertising uses are granted for 5 years, 10 years or in perpetuity.
- 4. If works are going on loan to an organisation, image fees will be payable, but reproduction rights fees are waived for use in the exhibition catalogue, press and promotion, and other educational and non-commercial uses for the duration of the exhibition.

For further information or discussion of specific uses, please contact the Picture Library directly via the contact details listed above.
